Quote of the Week

Good character is not formed in a week or a month. It is created little by little, day by day. Protracted and patient effort is needed to develop good character.

I Scream for Ice Cream!!

Wow we can't believe how big a hit the ice cream machine has been and how generous everyone is being in paying. We went through so much this weekend and there seemed to be no one here that come July 4th it will be hard to keep up with the demand. If you see the lights on please let us know so we can refill it.

The Invention

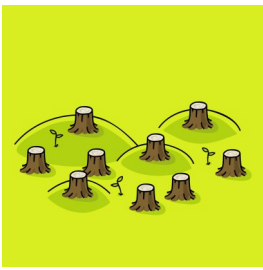

Thank you Patty

If you have noticed a change in the mowing style Patty has retired after ? years of mowing for us. She has been the best mower we have had and Brooke will have a great mentor and big shoes to fill. Thank you Patty very much for all your service and enjoy your time off with Jon.

All Cleaned Up?!

It is Monday evening 9.30pm and we are all just getting in from getting caught up with things. After our long wet spell, with the building of the aviary, the reconstruction of the entrance and the grinding out of over 60 stumps it is taking some catching up.

Louis has got the first go around with roundup done and now has started on the second round.

Bob picked up the stump grindings and used it to put around the roses and Summer Wine which 'kills two birds with one stone' as the saying goes but it was a time consuming job. It also is dual purpose to look nice and help to hold the moisture in.

We have finished construction in the aviary for the mean time so hopefully the birds will setting down and nest. Mama duck is well on the way to having ducklings and the so is the

Time to Golf

The golf course is finally low enough to play golf but the greens aren't and it may take until the 4th of July before they look any good. We have to cut the grass 1/4 of an inch lower each time so as not to kill it.
